THE NEW TERRITORIES.

It may interest the public to know that the expenses attending the six new territorial Governments, recently created, amount to the rather significant figure of $239,176 m/n per annum, and as the sums already voted by Congress for these Governments fall far short of this amount, the Minister of the Interior has been obliged to send a note to Congress on the subject asking for the required sums.

Of course we all must admit that the National Government in view of the immense areas embraced in these territories, the steady growth of new estancias on the pampas, the settlement of the boundary question with Chile, and the creation of ports and resguardos on our seaboard, had really no other course to adopt; and the growth and progress of the nation demanded a corresponding growth of administration and authority in districts which up to the other day were howling wildernesses. Still it is a very open question if in some of these new territories the game is worth the candle, and the less we spend in some of those out-of-the-way districts the better.

In the rich and fertile districts of Misiones, Gran Chaco, Pampa Central, Rio Negro and Nauquen Governments had to be established on some scale or other, as the settlers were creeping out there and population steadily increasing; but we are not sure that the Governments of Santa Cruz and Tierra del Fuego are equally necessary, and, from some parties who have recently returned from Cape Horn, we learn that nothing can surpass that new Argentine territory for barrenness and desolation. The less money we spead down there and at Santa Cruz the better, as generations must pass away before civilized man will willingly make a home in such out of the way spots; and, we think, that in view of the present straitened state of our exchequer, the utmost the Government ought to do in such places is to establish subdelegaciones, which would cost but a trifle, since to name a Governor where there are not even Indians to bid H. E. the time of day, is a republican farce which should not be tolerated.

It is surpassing strange how this wave of Colonial enterprise, which has within the last year entangled so many European countries, should be also felt here, where in the opinion of most people we have with our present sparse population a superabundance of Governments; but we suppose it must be admitted that the same ceaseless impulse that scattered the sons of Shem, Ham, and Japhet throughout the globe lives to this day, and is the parent of that pioneering zeal that plants the Italians on the Red Sea, the Belgians on the Congo, the Germans in New Guinea and Camaroons, the French at Tunis and Madagascar, and the English everywhere. Why should not Argentines plant their flag on the outposts of their own territory, and start another Buenos Ayres or Rosario at Cape Horn? It will remain for Congress to decide. National policy demands that we should keep an eye on what's our own; but a military or naval outpost is very different from a Governor with a Governor's retinue, and as economy is the order of the day we think subdelegaciones at Tierra del Fuego and at Santa Cruz will meet all requirements for the present.

The Magellan's Mails.

DATES FROM EUROPE UP TO JULY 8th

In a letter to the Midlothian electors Mr. Gladstone thanks them for their support to the liberals while in power. The ex-Premier also declared his intention of lending the Conservative Government his support.

The publication of Gordon's Memoirs tends to injure the interests of the Liberals and particularly of their leader, Mr. Gladstone. The work in question is calculated to create some confusion in political circles, as the general elections are at hand. Gordon's opinion on the English expedition to Egypt is unfavourable to the policy pursued by the Liberal Government, and has given rise to much comment.

In France political meetings appear to be the order of the day. The Republicans are indefatigable. The Radicals have published a political programme, the perusal of which will certainly turn M. Clemeaceau's hair greay. The religious question seems to be the pivot of the whole political movement.

Dr. Zaldivar, ex-President of Salvador, has arrived in Paris.

M. Torres Caicedo, Minister of that Republic to France, has sent in his resignation, a step which he has been compelled to take owing to the political disturbances in Central America. M. Caicedo has been a resident in Paris for eighteen years, and is one of the most esteemed Spanish-American Ministers in France.

Cagny, the murderer of one of the old servants in the Chateau Gloire Dieu, was guillotined at Troyes.

With regard to the cholera in Spain, the official figures give an average of 500 deaths per diem. Owing to a dispute between the Health Board and authorities of Valencia, over 300 corpses remained for three days without burial. It cannot be wondered at that cholera should be so rife in this province.

The civil Governor of Madrid, with the assistance of the Spanish aristocracy, is organizing a bull fight for the benefit of the families of the cholera-victims in Aranguez. King Alfonso besides many valuable donations, gave the "alcalde" of Aranguez a sum of 10,000 pesetas. Similar amounts have been sent in aid of the bereaved families of Zaragoza, Alicante, and Tarragona.

On July 6th there were 1410 cases of cholera in Spain and 644 deaths; on the 7th there were 1964 cases and 797 deaths. The papers publish details with regard to the Royal visit to Aranguez. At the station, a few persons had assembled to welcome the King, who immediately visited the Civil Hospital and subsequently the Military Hospital. The sick soldiers appeared to regain strength as they endeavoured to thank the King for his kindness. On the arrival of the King, the greatest excitement prevailed.

After breakfasting, the King walked to the barracks where he was greeted with loud cheers. His Majesty spoke with the soldiers and remained some time with the sick consoling them and speaking to them familiarly.

On the return to Madrid, the King was the object of a popular demonstration of sympathy.

The Portuguese authorities have imposed a severe quarantine on all travellers crossing the Spanish frontier. The greatest alarm prevails in France and the Press are unanimous in advising the severest quarantine regulations not only on persons coming from Spain but on all Spanish goods.

LONDON LETTER.

A HITCH.

(From our own Correspondent.)

June 19th.

By telegram you will be kept informed of the general progress of events, and will, like the rest of us, feel a little bewildered at the hesitation of the new Cabinet in assuming office. The plain fact is, that the defeat and resignation of the existing Cabinet occurred ten days ago, and Mr. Gladstone is still Prime Minister, and during the week there has been a general opinion that he might, after all, remain Premier, and carry us over the remainder of the session. The Queen offered him an Earldom, which he politely refused, a sign that he does not intend to give up his political position as leader of the Liberal party in the House of Commons; or maybe he remembers the message from America, conveyed to him personally, through Mr. Carnegie, "that he was known by his friends in America as Mr. Gladstone," and as Mr. Gladstone "he must live and die."

The difficulties of the new Cabinet were first ascribed to internal dissensions, and of these there were enough, but they were arranged. Lord Salisbury had to knuckle down to the young Tory party when Sir Michael Hicks Beach joined it. So, Lord Randolph Churchill was made contented with the Secretaryship of State for India, and, at his request, Sir Stafford Northcote is to be sent to the Upper House as Earl of Iddesleigh and Viscount St. Cyres. Sir Stafford owns the manor of Iddesleigh, and a portion of his property connected with his country seat, the Pynes, is in the parish of St. Cyres. The first idea was to shelve the new Peer and veteran leader of the Conservative party, by offering him the post of President of the Council. On second thoughts, precedents were looked for and found, by which he could sit in the House of Peers as First Lord of the Treasury, Lord Salisbury will be Prime Minister and Secretary for Foreign Affairs. Sir Hardinge Gifford is to be Lord Chancellor; Sir Michael Hicks Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, etc. etc.; but it is not worth while going through the list, which I can give separately. Evidently, the question now is the difficulty of forming a Cabinet at all, as Parliament is further adjourned to the 23rd inst., to give Lord Salisbury more time. In the meanwhile, the Gladstone Cabinet are in office.

The Irish question has, we are led to understand, been settled in a most satisfactory manner—for the Irish party. Lord Salisbury, under the thumb of Lord Randolph, has agreed not to renew the Crimes Act, and to trust to the ordinary law. The Parnellites being settled, and the fourth party being settled, and Lord Carnarvon being named Lord Lieutenant for Ireland, the post of Secretary for Ireland being left unfilled for the present, and all the minor offices in the Cabinet to be—or not to be—being settled to everyone's satisfaction, the marvel remained, why should not the new Ministry take their places and begin business? Mr. Bradlaugh, amongst others, is very impatient, for as soon as they do take their places he intends to begin business.

Up to this evening it was a general impression that the only remaining difficulty for the new Government was the "understanding" with Mr. Gladstone and the Liberal party in the House of Commons, without which Lord Salisbury said he would give up the task of forming a Cabinet. Naturally, the Conservatives being in a large minority, required some assurance that they should not be upset the moment Lord Salisbury took the reins in his hands.

In the House of Commons this afternoon, and again in answer to Mr. Labouchere, who put the same question on Monday last, Mr. Gladstone acknowledged that certain overtures of the kind had been made to him by Lord Salisbury, but that nothing of the "confidential" kind would be attempted, and whatever was agreed upon would be made known to the House. Mr. Gladstone added, that Lord Salisbury himself saw the wisdom and necessity of full publicity. In fact, there was never any doubt from the beginning, that the Liberals quite understood the exceptional conditions under which the Conservatives came into office, and that no factious opposition would be offered, or any opposition at all, so long as no tricks were tried, and that in producing an amended Budget, for instance, none of the obscene things which have, in the shape of "duties on foreign sugar," "5s. duties on corn," "fair trade," etc,, been already creeping to the surface in Conservative newspapers, should be countenanced by the new Government, acting only as a "Cabinet of Transition" until the country declared in the coming elections either for democracy of the Chamberlain type, or for that of the Churchill type. The "understanding," it is now clear, never presented any real difficulty. The true difficulty is foreshadowed in a short speech made by Lord Salisbury in the House of Peers to-day. The reports in the special editions of the evening papers are curtailed, but the point is the Distribution Bill, in relation to which Lord Salisbury has received legal advice, probably from Sir Hardinge Gifford, and it is so important I must, without trusting myself with comments, ask you to quote the report verbatim, as follows:—

THE REDISTRIBUTION BILL.

On the Motion to consider the Commons' reasons for disagreeing with the Lords' Amendments to this Bill

Lord Salisbury moved as an Amendment to postpone their consideration to Tuesday. He said the Bill would legally prevent any dissolution taking place, which was a very singular and unusual event in our history. Except at the time of the Long Parliament the Sovereign had never been deprived of the power of dissolution; and such a step ought not to be taken unless there was a responsible Government in power at the time (hear, hear), whether it consisted of noble lords on one side of the House or on the other.

Lord Kimberley said as there was no intention to lay aside this important Bill on the part of either Party there was no reason why the consideration of the Amendments should not be at once proceeded with. Notwithstanding the resignation of the Government the House of Commons resolved by a large majority to proceed with this Bill, and he thought their Lordships would make a mistake if they did not follow the same course. A dissolution before the Bill came into operation was technically possible; but the entire country was so bent upon this Bill passing and no election taking place until it had passed, that no men could hold office for many days who would advise her Majesty to dissolve Parliament before this Bill had passed (Liberal cheers). He earnestly hoped that the House would proceed at once with the consideration of the Amendments.

Lord Faversham said there was no reason for hurrying through this measure.

Lord Salisbury said all he asked was for a delay of four days, which might cause a delay of four days in November. Surely the sky was not likely to fall because of such a delay.

The House divided, and the numbers were:—

For adjourning to Tuesday..	124
Against	56
Majority for.....	—68

The House rose at five o'clock.

LATEST FROM RIO.

July 24th.

Among the passengers by the American mail packet Advance on the 18th inst., was Ex-Minister Thomas A. Osborn and wife, and Ex-Consul-General C. C. Andrews and wife, who are returning home after a residence in this city during the greater part of the last four years. Both of these retiring officials take with them the sincere respect and hearty good wishes of the entire comunity, irrespective of class or nationality. It is no discourtesy to the new American representatives to say that the retirement of Minister Osborn and Consul-General Andrews is not only deeply regreted here, but also the policy which occasions it is heartily condemned. The act of His Majesty the Emperor in conferring the Grand Cross of the Order of the Rose upon Minister Osborn may be justly taken as a fair indication of the appreciation in which that gentleman is held in this city. It is the second time such distinction was ever conferred upon an American diplomatic representative here, and is all the more significant because, unlike the bestowal of such decorations upon the representatives of other governments, there is no possibility of reciprocating it in kind.

The new official representatives of the American government, Minister Jarvis and Consul-General Armstrong, have already received a hearty welcome both officially and privately, and we are confident that their residence here for the next four years will be as pleasant and satisfactory to them and to ourselves as could be wished.

There was quite a little flutter in the Brazilian section of the Antwerp exposition on the 19th ult., the occasion being a visit from no less a personage than the sister of the King of Spain. This important event seems to have stirred up the waning interest in Brazil's one great product, for on the following day the president of the fair came in and drank a cup of coffee, and then two English journalists at once set themselves at work and wrote up a couple of articles praising the physiological properties of pure Brazilian coffee. And well they miggt, for it was very little known in their own country! The crowning triumph of the Brazilian section, however, is due to the action of the grand lottery commission, presided over by Count de Beaufort, which has visited the Brazilian exhibit for objects to be given as special prizes. Their choice fell upon: 1st, a little box ornamented with the Brazilian coat of arms and the symbolic words "Centro da lavoura e Commercio do Rio de Janiero," containing six phials of "créme de café" and six others of "licor de mate;" 2nd, a box of Bahia cigars; 3rd, an atlas of Brazil; and 4th Sant'Anna Neryis "Pays des Amazones." All these prizes were chosen by Count de Beaufort in person, which reflects great credit upon that gentleman's good judgement and an additional lustre upon these important products of Brazil.

H. B. M. ship Ruby arrived here on the 19th inst. from St. Vincent.

The U. S. S. Nipsic arrived here on the 18th from Montevideo via Santa Catalina.

The American packet Finance is due at this port on the 2nd prox.

By decree of the 18th inst. Sr. Antonio Joaquim de Fontoura Xavier was appointed consul at Baltimore.

The town of Rio Claro, Sao Paulo, is to have the electric light. An exchange says that all the material is on the spot except the motor.

The S. Paulo paper notice that the government is about so build 80 houses for immigrants on a plantation near Lorena, in that province recently purchased.

The abbatoir company of Campinas, S. Paulo, has sold its buildings and accessories to the Municipality for the total sum of 145,107$130. Hereafter the town will run its own slaughter house.

The Ferrari opera company arrived from Buenos Aires on the 19th by the French packet Orenoque. The company comprises 174 persons.

All the theatres of the city are to be connected with the central fire station by telephone lines. It is said that this step was suggested by the Emperor.

The Swedish schooner Maria with a cargo of coal from Cardiff, was wrecked near the Rio Grande bar on the 7th inst.

A few days ago a couple of gentlemen, wishing to examine the new cuttings near the top of the Corcovado, presented themselves at the Corcovado railway station and asked for tickets to the summit. They were told that none but excursion tickets are sold for the summit, which, of course, they declined to take. Aside from the extraordinary charges made on this railway, it seems to us that is management is one of the least accommodating that has ever come within our experience. The officials and employees of the line seem to have have about as much conception of railway management and their duties to the public on which they depend for support, as a party of Guarany Indians would have. It is fortunate, perhaps, that the company has so intelligent and experienced a railway man as Dr. Passos at its head, else there is telling what enormities the public might not be compelled to suffer.

According to the Jornal do Agricultor the export of oranges from Fortaleza, Ceará, from 23rd July to 31st December, 1884, amounted to 52,463 boxes, containing 200 oranges each, amounting in all to 10,492,600 oranges. The shipments were made to Europe and the United States, and the freight paid was 1$500 per box, or a total of 78,694$500 for the total export. This is an industry peculiarly adapted for small proprietors, and its extension to other localities should be warmly encouraged.

According to a provincial contemporary, a black woman named Jacintha has just concluded to die at Rio Verde at the advance age of 150 years. She could sew, and enjoyed good health up to the last.

The regular fortnightly concert of the Beethoven Club takes place this evening and the seventh lecture of Dr Ferreira Vianna on "Æsthetics" on Saturday evening at the Club's concert rooms, Rua da Gloria.

A fatal accident occurred on the Ouro Preto Railway works on the 14th inst., a bank of earth falling upon a gang of labourers, killing three and seriously injuring an engineer. The animals and carts in the cutting are covered with earth.

Our colleague of the Diario de Noticias thinks it odd that the Chinese should have waited until peace was declared before ordering two ironclads built at Kiel to proceed to China. We do not, for had they been at sea during hostilities the French would have gobbled them sans doute.

A fatal accident occured in the salt-works of Valentim de Almeida & Alves, at Cabo Frio, on the 17th inst., occasioned by the bursting of a boiler. The walls of the building were thrown down, causing the instantaneous death of three persons and serious injuries to three others.

The differential duties imposed by the provincial assembly of Amazonas in favor of direct exports has created great indignation at Pará. The exports direct are to pay 5 per cent. duty; those to Brazilian ports pay 10 per cent. A protest will probably be presented to the general government.

The Jornal do Commercio of the 16th extracts a notice, from a Nitherohy paper that an opposition ferry company is in contemplation between Rio and Praia Grande.

The anniversary of the taking of the Bastile was duly celebrated on the 14th inst. by the French colony of this city. The local press also devoted the customary space and compliment to the occasion.

The number of employees of the telegraph department is to be increased so that the electric fire alarms may be examined every day. His Majesty the Emperor is credited with this new undertaking.

The Sociedade Central de Immigração has appealed to the directory of the Banco do Brazil to shake off its somnolency and proceed to divide the plantations it holds into lots. The appeal should certainly not be necessary, for the interests of the share-holders might have long ago pointed out this action. The bank has an excuse, however; the wonderful delay in reforming the mortgage law.

The banquet given to Councillor Dantas by the members of his cabinet, on the 15th inst., the anniversary of his emancipation project, was enthusiastic and offered an opportunity for the enunciation of decided abolitionist opinions. The principal editor of the Jornal, if his speech is correctly reported, declared that whatever cabinet passed the law, to the Dantas cabinet would belong the glory of having proposed the bill. Good for Dr. Castro! Sundry free papers were granted to slaves.

There was a row the other day on a Swedish vessel called the Frithiof. The Gazeta de Noticias makes the name Teralheofsueden; the Diario de Noticias gets it Frelheof Sueder; O Paiz calls it Trellhof; and finally the Jornal says the name is Skinerten Frilhiaf. We sympathize with the captain.

IRELAND.

Dublin, July 2.

To-day Mr. Gibson, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, took his seat with Chief Justice Morris, Lord Justices Fitzjibbon and Barry, in the Appeal Court. There was no demonstration.

A public welcome was given this afternoon at Mullingar to the Right Rev. Dr. Nulty, Bishop of Meath, on his return from Rome. A banquet was held in the evening, and the town was illuminated.

Mr. Holmes, M.P., was sworn Attorney-General for Ireland and admitted a member of the Privy Council.

Private Hanway, 5th Dragoon Guards, jumped overboard from the steamship Countess of Dublin off Lizard Point and was drowned. The Coroner's jury found that he committed suicide whilst temporarily insane.

Mr. John Dillon, who left Ireland two years ago for Colorado with his brother, a barrister, who has settled there, is returning home greatly improved in health, and will be a candidate at the general election, probably for an Ulster constituency.

United Ireland, referring to Messrs. Chamberlain and Dilke's proposed visit to Ireland, says:—Englishmen know exactly what the national demands are without coming over to find them out. The gentlemen from the moment they land will be, as the Prince of Wales was, in the hands of the West British ring, and their inquiries can only be directed to accumulating materials to persuade themselves and others that the extreme demands of Mr. Parnell are not shared in by the country at large; but the Nationalists could no more admit of surrender on the national question than could the Pope on one of the dogmas.

United Ireland, replying to Archbishop Croke's declaration against the payment of members of Parliament, as bringing forward local spouters, says his Grace leaves out of sight the influence of a national and exterior discretion in the selection of suitable candidates.

The Orange bands yesterday paraded Lurgan for hours, followed by immense crowds. A catholic from Pipershill dangerously stabbed a Protestant boy named Black in the breast with a sword-cane. Great excitement prevailed, but the police paraded the town in force, and prevented what might have been a serious riot.

The Freeman's Journal of yesterday, discussing the scheme of Irish Local Government advocated by Mr. Chamberlain, says:—"Granting that we are given in Ireland what we believe the enfranchished county electors of England will insist upon—thorough representative County Boards, elected by the occupiers alone, are we in Ireland going to reject a thorough reform of county government because it is proposed by Messrs. Chamberlain and Dilke, or are we going to look askance upon them if they come here to better inform themselves on the subject? But it may be said that the reform of county government is a certainty, and that the really dangerous feature of the scheme is the establishment of the National Council representing all the County Boards, and we may say, in passing, we presume also the municipal bodies. But is it not a fact that this is a mere enlargement of the proposal made a couple of years ago by Mr. Healy? Mr. Healy proposed County Boards, and Provincial Councils. Mr. Chamberlain proposes what we regard as an improvement, that instead of having four Provincial Councils we should have one National Council. Surely per se it would be a great national benefit to have these extensive powers exercised by representative men in whom the country had confidence, and who could be displaced if they did not do their work."

THE TRIAL OF LUCILLA DUDLEY.

New York, July 2.

The closing scene of the trial of Mrs. Dudley for the attempt to murder O'Donovan Rossa was witnessed in Toombs Police-court to-day, and was attended with dramatic incidents. The Court met to give judgment on the application of the prisoner's attorney that she should be relegated to England in order that she might be confined in an asylum in her native land, the jury having declared her to be insane. Judge Gildersleeve having taken time to consider the motion, to-day decided that Mrs. Dudley shall be confined in a State lunatic asylum at Middletown, there to be kept until she shall recover her reason. Judgment was made accordingly.

Scarcely had the Judge finished speaking when an Irishwoman, who had been noticed loitering in the corridor of the Court, screamed out in a frantic manner that the whole trial had been a farce, and expressed her intention, in forcible language, of emphasising her opinion by killing Judge Gildersleeve, Mrs. Dudley, and the prosecuting attorney. She made desperate efforts to force her way into the court with the idea idea of carrying out her threats, but the policemen on duty had little difficulty in preventing her doing so, and she was taken into custody and formally remanded to prison.

There can be no doubt the wretched woman was insane, and she will probably be sent to Middletown or some other asylum. There was intense excitement in the court and precincts until the woman was removed.

A New York telegram says:—The newspapers are still unable to agree about Mrs. Dudley's sanity, but even those which think her sane disapprove of the result of the trial. The New York Times points out that the issue is an encouragement to others to repair in a similar way the neglect of the law. It suggests that the cowardly followers of Rossa may possibly be frightened now into abandoning at least the public incitement to the use of dynamite.

GLYCERINE DIP.

Keenan's Hotel, Rosario,
July 25, 1885.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

For your information, we have just arrived here after being a benefactor with the Dip to several estancieros at La Paz, Parana, and Santa Fé, for we regret to find that "garrapatas" have even found their way to the Northern Santa Fé cattle camps, and we were curing cattle there on Tuesday last and saving the lives of the animals by so doing. Mr Livingstone would have lost several animals but for the timely aid of "Especifico de Glyceriua" the merits of which he testifies to by his certificate herewith.

I am now busy again with scabby sheep, of which I find plenty even round Rosario.

Faithfully yours,
C. P. Hayward.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The latest news in town yesterday was that Dr. Pellegrini refuses to accept the post of War Minister. We think, notwithstanding the great currency of the report, that it requires confirmation before we accept it as a fact.

Yesterday, Mr. Thomas Drysdale had a long interview with President Roca, and subsequently with Dr Wilde, Minister of Education, on the great subject of an Institution for the Blind. President Roca promised Mr. Drysdale his fullest co-operation, and Dr. Wilde excused the long delay in this matter owing to the affair having been taken out of the hands of the Government and confided as he thought to the Ladies of the Benificencia. He requested Mr Drysdale to direct a note to him indicating a few names of persons to act on a Committee. He promised Mr Drysdale that as soon as the preliminary arrangements were completed, the Government would accede to his wishes and apply to the Spanish Government for two professors. We congratulate Mr Drysdale on finally arranging this business which will prove one of the grandest of all our charitable institutions and a lasting monument of its noble founder Mr Thomas Drysdale.

Our special reporter was present the other evening at a full band rehearsal of the Christy Minstrel Entertainment to be given at the Literary Society, performance this evening, and he gives us glowing accounts of the talented dusky gentlemen, who never perform out of Buenos Ayres but once had the honour of appearing before his Majesty the King of the Sandwich Islands. We advise those that intend buying boxes to hurry up, as the demand promises to be greater than the supply. We hear this will be the last performance at the Alegria, as this theatre is to be turned into a deposit next month which will be a loss to our amateurs.

It will be evident to all who read the Havas telegram that the Tories have won their first victory in the House, as Lord Salisbury's Budget was passed with a sweeping majority.

The English papers bring the news that in the great libel case of Maskelyne v Irving Bishop where the jury gave Ten thousand pounds damages, the Judge has reduced the verdict to £500 stg. The whole suit was about a pin, and the libel was that the plaintiff had conspired with the editor of Truth against the defendant, alleging a pre arrangement with somebody to enable him to discover a concealed pin. It proved a rather dear pin for the defendant.

We have received from Dr. Paz a neat pamphlet entitled Practical Studies on the breeding and refining of sheep by John Harrett. As yet we have not had time to cut the leaves, but the author's name is a guarantee that this little book must be of great interest to all engaged in the sheep-farming business.

A most amusing case is published in the London papers, where a street preacher offended, and annoyed a Chinese gentleman, who happened to be passing at the time, and who to give evidence in court, had to be sworn on a saucer. We suppose the next case of the kind the witness will be sworn on the tea pot. Can such things be?

In New York last month all the "mayorales" or conductors of street cars or tramways struck, which caused the most extraordinary inconvenience and a sort of panic in that great and populous city.

The day after the arrival of our brother editor in London, he received an order for an essay in reply to Goshen and Giffen on gold-supply in relation to prices, and we hope to receive the paper by next mail and publish it in our columns, as it will much interest our readers.

D. Saturnino Ribes, our millionaire Steamboat King, will shortly leave for Europe on a pleasure trip.

Last night there was a fashionable ball at Madame Fernandez's, in Calle Cangallo, also at Mrs. Hume's, Calle Suipacha, dancing kept up till the roce hours.

Colonel Uriburu's funeral took place yesterday with full military pomp. Colonel Gramajo attended on behalf of the National Government.

Toledo according to latest telegrams is at Humaita, but will shortly start for Montevideo.

With much pleasure we state that General Osborne, the esteemed American Minister, is not leaving for the States so soon as some of our colleagues stated. Were it put to the vote General Osborne would not leave at all, as he is the most popular American Minister that has ever been in the Plate, but for the General we might now be fighting the Chilenos.

Dr. Luis Varela has been offered the editor's chair at the Tribuna Nacional. We hope we will accept, as many years ago he sat beside us in the editorial Bus.

Alphonse Karr once said that in a woman's life everything leads to a new dress; every circumstance is marked by a new dress; and the dress is always the most important point. A girl is going to be married—a dress. A relation dies—the grief of the ladies is violent; but it is soon checked, for the mourning has to be thought of."

A colleague proposes that a School of Cookery should be started here. It appears that a similar institution in Guatemala has proved a great success. Good cookery is by no means general in this city, but its cosmopolitan population eat anything.

We are very glad to hear that Dr. Laspiar, the distinguished Judge of the Supreme Federal Court, is much better. Mr. Acevedo's have-his-corpus case will now have immediate attention.

Two madmen were locked up yesterday. One was found meandering about the streets, and the other, an Italian named Boggrani, in a bog near Barracas, sawing away at his throat with a clasp knife.

Another political sudden demise is reported in Catamarca. The victim was a political agent lately sent up by one of the Presidential parties. He got into some squabble, and the natural and usual result ensued.

The opposition papers seem to be all afloat about the Floating Debt.

"Papa, where did the dogs get their bark?" "Can't say for sure, my son, but presume they obtained it when the druggists, following Shakespeare's advice, threw physic at them."—Boston Budget.

The 'Bomberos,' after a big fire, always complain of want of water, to hide their own shortcomings. It has been conclusively proved by the Water Board engineer that there was lots of water for the blaze in Calle Cangallo the other day; but the firemen stupidly attached several hose to one main, and thus reduced the pressure. 'Bomberos' heads are by no means as sharp as their heels are swift.

The row about horse shoes got up by the S. F. T. P. O. C. T. A. threatens to end in nothing, like too many River Plate things. All the vets, blacksmiths "et hoc genus omne" agree in saying that part of the evil arises from the enormous consumption of hosse shoes in this city, and the careless manufacture in the haste to supply enough of them. Our departed colleague Mr Geary, of the River Plate Times, introduced a splendid horseshoe here some fifteen years ago, but nobody took it up, although we used a hogshead of ink in making its merits known to the public.

The French Consul in Villa Mercedes (San Luis) is a staunch Royalist and flatly refused to hoist his country's flag on such an anniversary. We respect his principles, but think he ought to resign the Consulship.

The first civil marriage took place in Montevideo on the 25th inst. The high contracting parties were Peter Polleri and Miss Magdalen Fernandez.

His Holiness the Pope is about to publish a grand edition of his own poems, to raise money for a Boys' Asylum in Udino.

The latest nuisance in Rosario is squads of soldiers going about at night asking every man they meet if he is liable to service in the National Guard, and arresting those who they suspect are shirking the obligation to go soldiering. A nice state of things, truly.

"Don't you suppose," said a member of the police force, "that a policeman knows a rogue when he sees him?" "No doubt," was the reply; but the trouble is that he does not seize a rogue when he knows him."

What is a ship without a sail?
Adieu, my love, adieu.
What is a monkey without a tail?
A dude, my love, a dude.
East Oregonian.

There is a Californian ship now in the Boca with a cargo of boards that are sold much cheaper than the usual spruce article.

The Villarino is a splendid sea-boat, and her commander, Colonel Spurr, a tip-top sailor. She had awful weather in the Gulf of St. George lately, and had to lie to for 48 hours, yet had not a hair turned.

The Argentine Lloyd's Company has volunteered to knock 50 per cent off the freight of goods for the Rural Society's Exhibition next year. "Muy bien."

Strange is the way of the actor! Before his professional visit to Australia, Daniel Latham, it is said, will appear in England for a few months, having refused the offer of a handsome salary for acting Hamlet and Richard III. in Spanish here, in Rosario and in Montevideo. The "empresario" who is willing to risk the productions of weak Shakespearean translations, it is said, is Mr Mackay, but Daniel declines with a firmness that speaks well for his love of the great bard.

The death is announced of Mr. Evarista Uriburu, head of the illustrious Salta family of his name. General Napoleon Uriburu is his son.

The Scientific Society had a grand palaver and general pow-wow on Wednesday night. The addresses of the night were classical, especially that of Dr. Holmberg, Dr. Spegazzini read an eloquent paper on religion amongst the Indians.

Lucia de Lammermoor was very fairly given at the Colon on Wednesday night by the Escalante company. Signorina Ferretti made her first appearance. She was nervous but sung her very difficult role well, and was specially good in the mad scene. The part of Edgardo is too heavy for Signor Giordano. The house was not to say crowded. Aida is announced for to-night.

The Nazar-Garcia lawsuit causes great excitement. On Wednesday there was not standing room in Dr. Molina's court, such was the rush to hear the examination of 24 witnesses for Dr. Nazar. The "tiro salio por la culata," however, for this gentleman, as his witnesses did his cause far more harm than good. He left the curt so often during the day to get a drink of water, that Mr. Garcia's counsel called the Judge's attention, to the fact, and Dr. N. was forbidden to leave the room again, and a servant was told to stand by, to supply him with Adam's ale.

The city health is anything but good. Small pox is still an epidemic, and diseases of the lungs and throat are very prevalent. Smiling Spring will soon be at hand, however, and improve matters.

There is some pecuniary unpleasantness in Tandil, owing to the branch of the Provincial Bank there refusing to take National Bank notes if they are in the least torn, even at the edges, which every bank note must be after a week's vigorous circulation.

The best skit we have seen for a long time is one in a Portuguese paper on the Victor Hugo mania that seized all Frenchmen when the old man died. It is in the shape of a telegram from a fanatical admirer of the defunct poet, asking for an instant reply as to whether the French Government had not given permission for human sacrifices on the poet's tomb, as, if so, the enquirer would at once start for Paris, and joyfully contribute his corpus to the funeral pyre. Another admirer proposed that to honour the departed V. G. the Nineteenth century should be declared to have expired with him, and the year 2,001 be started at once. We really did not think there was so much sarcastic wit in the Portuguese character.

"And so you think Russia will not have much trouble in taking Herat?" said I to the Innocent. "Trouble, my dear sir! No assault will be necessary. The thing will be done by a mere 'demonstration." "But you can't prove this." "Oh, yes, I can. It is as simple as Euclid, and finishes up in the same way—Quod 'Herat' demostrandum!"

Two of the Italian steam lines to the Plate. Piaggio's and the G. N. C. have amalgamated, and mean to try and get the Veloce company to join them, that they may be able to bleed the public in proper style. So much the better. The public requires bleeding occasionally. It is too plethoric Governments understand this.

Several free lecture classes at the University, on philology, and other ologies have been suppressed, as not a blessed or unblessed soul attended them.

Mr. Saturnine Unzue is going to build the new Argentine Ball Club in Calle Piedras. All the high life young fellows have joined or are joining it.

All the papers should shout in common for a railing at the point where the Western Railway branch crosses the tramway line in Calle Santa Fé, behind the Recoleta. A tram car full of daily bread men was nearly smashed by a goods 'train last week. We shall most certainly some day have to mourn the premature demise of some of our best Belgrano subscribers if some remedy be not devised for the constant danger we refer to.

30 esplendidos carneros Rambouillet Argentino, animales del mas puro origen.

Cuando ha llegado a fuerza de largos años de estudios y grandes sacrificios pecuniarios a producir el verdadero carnero Rambouillet Argentino, que puede decirse es el ideal y perfeccion del tipo de los Rambouillet, creemos innecesario estendernos sobre la bondad de estos moruecos, tanto mas que son tan universalmente conocidos en ambas margenes del Plata, por los innumerables criadores y estancieros que los han adquirido.

Uuicamente prevenimos a nuestra clientela, que los animales de este año son tal vez superiores y sino iguales a los de los ultimos años

El primer lote numerado del 1 al 20 podr verse ya, en la cabaña y en nuestra casa call Alsina 78, desde el dia 31 de July.

El Jueves 6 de Agosto de 1885
A las 2 de la tarde

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero contado, procedentes del establecimiento arriba mencionado.

20 notables carneros sangre pura Rambouillet, animales especiales por su tamaño y por la finura y tupidez de su vellon, pues hemos tenido ocasion de examinar los animales en la misma cabaña, y podemos recomendarlos a los señores estancieros, no obstante de que el establecimiento goza hace muchos años de fama con respecto a sus productos.

Debemos prevenir a los señores que han comprado de este establecimiento, que este año no dara mas que dos remates de carneros Rambouillet por haber querido presentar unicamente animales muy superiores.

El primer lote estara en nuestra casa Alsina 78 cuatro dias antes del remate para que los puedan examinar los interesados.

El espediente testamentaria tramita por la Secretaria del Sr D Natalio A Ponce en e Tribunal.

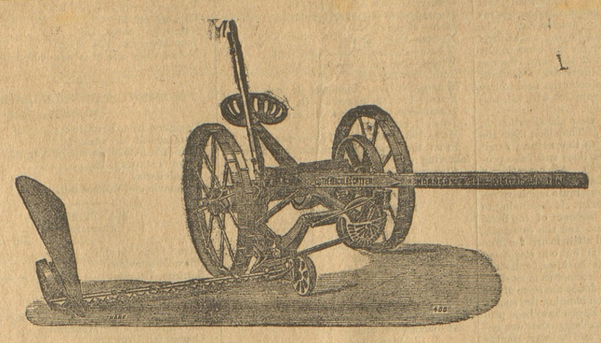
HERCULES MOWER AND FERN CURTTE



This machine has been specially designed for the Colonies and other new countries, for cutting strong thistles, fer and light scrub on rough land, and has been most successful in Autralasia and South America. It has very high wheels and is of great strength combined with lightness in draught.

The cutting apparatus consists of 2 sets of knives, one set fixed to the Bar in place of the Fingers, and the other driven by the Crank plate and connecting Rod in the usual way.

The unanimous verdict of all who have worked this machine is that it is the "Most useful and economical implement on the estancia."

There was a stiff rally in the bullish quarter this morning, accompanied by a significant rise in the premium which rather staggered both bears and outsiders. The situation is very anomalous as, although none can deny the existence of a "descubierto", yet everyone is convinced that the leading speculators have considerably overbought. The latter, however, continue buying and stiffening the market, waiting for the bears to buy back. As matters stand at the ring, the rise is steadily made and is expected to continue until the bearish dealers enter the field to buy back when they will be supplied with all, and more than they want.

There are many who view the situation in another light altogether. They look upon the rise in the gold market as the natural result of the ambiguous declarations and false promises of the State Banks. After posting a notice in the Bolsa that the Banks would draw, the Board have been mute and have refused to draw. The market is beginning to look upon the exchange business of the State Banks as a great hoax, and the comments passed on their equivocal attitude are far from complimentary. There is but one step from the exchange to the loan business, and since the market looks on the former as moonshine it now feels prepared to doubt the issue of the latter. The loan has been hanging fire such a length of time, and the Banks have been promising so often to draw exchange that one begins to doubt everything and to wait for the evidence of facts. If the Banks do not draw in the beginning of next month, or do not fix a date for drawing, the premium will probably go to 40 o/o.

This policy of procrastination in such an important matter as exchange generates distrust in every quarter. Many parties held back in view of these promises and waited a fortnight, a month, to take exchange from the State Banks, but they must now fall back on the market and pay for their deception. If the Presidents of the State Banks have any serious intentions in this regard, why do they not publish a notice that they will begin drawing on a fixed day? If the members of the two Boards only knew what is thought of their dilatory proceedings in the market, they might be induced to specify some date or mail to convince people that there are prospects of the Banks drawing.

The exchange operations of the banks, however, cannot much affect the gold speculation this month, whatever changes they may produce in August, and the rise or fall of the premium now depends on the elements of bulls and bears at the settlement on Friday. Gold is scarce, but up to the present there is not much demand for the precious metal, and all the efforts of speculators are directed towards influencing prices for the end of August. The rapid advance this morning took the bears by surprise. Over one hundred thousand dollars changed hands for cash; the market opened at 33½ and closed at 33.80. Operations for the end of the month embraced 16,000$; rates opened at 33½, rose to 34 and closed at 33.80. Over 500,000$ were sold for the end of the month; rates opened at 32½, rose to 33 and closed at 32.90. Operations during official hours amounted to about nine hundred thousand dollars. In spite of the rise, the speculation looks brittle.

Cedulas ruled exceedingly dull. Ten thousand F only were sold for the end of the month at 79. Two hundred Certificates of the National Bank were sold at 96 for August; 350 Shares were sold for the 31st at 145½ and 145.

The exchange market is quiet. Rates are quoted at 46⅝-¾d., and 4.91 to 4.93 frcs. The money market shews increased case. Large investments on 'Change have been taken back and have been deposited at 60 days in the banks. The accumulation of paper money is much greater than usual at this time of the year.

Mr Peter Gandolfo, so favourably known round the ring, has bought a valuable piece of land, fronting the Avenida Alvear for $17,000 m/n. The land measures 17½ varas on the Avenida, with a back frontage of 9 varas, and a depth of 140 varas. This is a cheap purchase in that rising quarter of the town.

The contract which the Concordia meat factory made with the French Government and which has been transferred to a "saladerista" in the Banda Oriental stipulates a yearly consignment of 2,000,000 kilogrammes of beef.

A colleague announces that Mr. Gregory Soler, the wealthy estanciero, has sold his magnificent estate in the South of this province to an English company for $300,000 m/n.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

A rumor is current on 'Change that the Financial Committee of the Senate are delaying their report on the Pelligrini bill, until the clause affecting the duties of the Custom House is removed. It is also reported that the Government has telegraphed to Dr Pelligrini in this regard. We think that there is no foundation to these reports, and that the Senate Committee is only waiting for full details of the foreign, home and floating debts from the Minister of Finance. These rumors, however, affect the gold market, and to-day's rise in the premium may be traced to the distrust that is rampant in the market. There appears to be a thick fog hanging around all these financial matters, of such great importance to the market.

The cattle king promises to deliver on Friday all the gold he has sold for the end of this month, and hopes to see the bulls take up every gold dollar he hands to the liquidator.

The news from Antwerp does not sound very favorable. In another column we publish a special telegram, announcing the opening of the wool sales with a flat tendency and crowded attendance, but giving no quotations. We also publish another telegram quoting 'bonne moyenne' wool at 1.10 frs per kilo, a rather low quotation. At this price the river wools would stand proportionately at one franc, the price paid for good bellies 15 months ago. It is, however, very probable that the wool offered the first day at auction comprised a great deal of rubbish, and prices may improve since the attendance of buyers is large.

The R.M.S. Trent will leave on the 1st of August with a full, general cargo for Brazils, Lisbon and Antwerp.

Mr. Castilla, the cattle-king sold to-day 500 'novillos' from Juarez at 13 $m/n per head.

A leading broker sold this afternoon a lot of $100,000 m/n for the end of the year at 32 o/o premium.

The gold market ruled very active and feverish during afterhours. The premium ran up to 35 o/o, but declined a little at 5 o'clock, closing at 34.30 buyers for the end of the month, and 33.20 buyers for August next. The following business was reported:—

$70,000 cash at 34 to 34.80
300,000 30th at 34 to 35
350,000 August at 33 to 33½
100,000 Dec. at 32
600 Shares, 30th, 146
200 Scrip at 95

The sudden rise in the gold market astonished all to-day, especially as the majority of operators anticipated a falling market for the settlement.

The Puerto Gomez saladero has sold 4000 q.q. of jerked beef, bonita and habanera quality, at 25 rls. ft., payable in Buenos Aires. The Spanish vessel Maria will load this cargo.

1000 cows have been sold in Monsalvo at 155 $m/c per head.

4000 cows in Santa Fe are reported sold at 6½ $m/n per head.

Mr Peter Gandolfo sold a property in the Avenida Alvear to-day for 38,000 $m/n. He bought a site, also on the Avenida, to-day for 17,000 $m/n. Real estate brokers state that property in that district has risen 50 per cent since last year.

The beautiful chacra property at Merlo belonging to the estate of the late Mrs Green, was sold yesterday by Mr Bulrich for 27,700$ Mr E L Green one of the heirs, purchaser. This fine property is 48 squares of cultivated land facing the river. It was once the property of Mr Bernard Coffin, The legal valuation was 25,000$.

If the State Banks don't draw exchange as they announced, in all probability the R.M.S. Trent will take gold for Europe.

Lands in Santa Fé continue in active demand and we hear of some important purchases about to be concluded. It would seem that there is more speculation going on now in Santa Fé lands than in the National territories or even this province.

Messrs. Hughes & Dunzelmann have sold another league of the Neues lands on the same conditions as those previously sold by them, (25 leagues) say 8,000 m/n per league 1/5 cash and the rest in 4 years. There are still four leagues left.

Mr Alexander Hume, contractor of the Colonies Railway, Sta. Fe, has arrived down from Sta. Fe, and was welcomed on 'Change, and warmly congratulated on the happy inauguration of his fine railway.

The Limay land auctions, held this month, fetched the high total of 953,047 m/n, of which 158,841.17 m/n was paid cash, according to the stipulations of the land law. The buyers of these lands cannot transfer their rights until all the payments are effected and the conditions of the law all carried out to the letter. Thus, these lands will not be thrown on the market for years to come, as the buyers have four years to pay and two years to put stock on the land. The Government will continue selling these Limay lands, and very probably another auction will be held before the end of the year.

Mr Nicholas Lowe is making a stir in influential quarters in order to get a branch of the National Bank in Mercedes. We feel confident that he will succeed.

Commander Spurr telegraphs from Patagones to the War Minister that Commander Palacios is daily expected with his contingent of 400 Indians from the Balchetas. The gallant Commander expects to get his vessel off before the 2nd prox. and will be in port on the 5th.

The Pomona leaves on the 1st prox. for Patagones. She will take a crowd of passengers. She will call at Bahia Blanca on her voyage South.

The Municipal taxes gave 193,334 m/n last month. The Corporation has been rather liberal of late in voting fresh expenditure, and it is high time to begin cutting down expenses.

The Board of Provincial Railways, of B. Ayres, are at present studying the expediency of the following new railway branches:—

1—Extension to Magdalena
2—Branch from Saladillo to General Alvear.
3—Extension from General Alvear to Tapalque.

The Brit. ship Antares has left London for the R. Plate with 6,800 barrels of Portland cement.

Advices from Paysandu state that the camps of that district are very bare and that animals are dying of hunger. In the Rio Negro department affairs are quite as bad. Animals are being moved off to other districts.

An Uruguayan colleague states that Mr Conrad Hughes, the wealthy estanciero and railway concessionaire, has sent for 3,000 navvies to begin the works of the railway.

The Araucania shipped £40,648 stg. from Montevideo for Europe. This is probably a remittance for account of this market.

The following amounts of specie arrived in Montevideo yesterday:—

We take the following from a Liverpool paper:—

"Our Liverpool correspondent telegraphs that the Cunard Steamship Company are sending their steamer Demerara in search of their overdue mail steamer Gallia. The Demerara will take with her a quantity of fresh provisions and ice for use in the event of the Gallia's stock having run short. Wire cables for towing purposes will also be taken. It is considered probable that the Anchor Line steamer Trinidad, which is also overdue, may be towing the Gallia."

Telegrams from Valparaiso announce a fresh fall in exchange. The rate on London is now at 23¾d and the premium on gold is over 100 per cent. The Pacific Coast is in a state of great depression—Peru ruined, Bolivia half-ruined, and Chile on the road to ruin. Chile will be obliged to turn over a new leaf in her history and drop the production of cereals.

The National corvette La Argentina, under command of Lieut. Col. Howard, arrived at Bahia Blanca towing in a vessel in distress.

We take the following from the Manchester Guardian of the 30th ult.:—

"It is stated by the Republique Argentine, a paper which for some time past has represented the interests of the Argentine Republic in Paris, that a financial arrangement "of the highest importance" between the representatives of the Argentine Republic on the one hand and Messrs Baring & Morgan, of London, the Société Générale, the Crédit Industriel, and the Banque de Paris on the other, has been made, with a view to maintain large drawing credits in Paris and London for the Argentine Government. The quoted paper predicts the most favourable results for Argentine finance from the arrangement, among the rest an advance of the B. Ayres exchange on London and Paris. Indeed, according to the Paris paper, the Argentine crisis may now be regarded as practically ended."

The departure for Europe of Mr Saturnine Ribes is spoken of in the market. Mr Ribes is one of the owners of the great company of river steamers.
